Not Many at Sewer Assessment Hearing.

The sewer assessment committee had a hearing in the town building Thurs-day evening. William A. Dawson, president of the board of aidermen and chairman of the committee, presided. Aldermen Smith and Hayden were aiso present.

The hearing was not largely attended, there being only about a dozen cited, there being only about a dozen cit-izens present, a few in favor and the balance against the benefits and as-sessments laid. No grave remonstrance was made and it is believed that the work of the committee will, in the main, be reasonably satisfactory to the majority of the abutters assessed.
